We are The Fun Size. We've been entertaining audiences of all ages throughout the Cincinnati area since November 2010. What started as a side project for established musicians John Michael and Kevin Cooper ultimately became a well-established and tightly-rehearsed performance and event band, with the additions of Lonn Koressel and Jason Melling.

We take pride in delivering an energetic, dynamic, and engaging show to our audiences, and we conduct ourselves with the utmost of professionalism, both on and off stage. We maintain quality equipment, our sound is well-engineered, and our volume levels are well under control. We ensure that every show we play meets the needs of the business or customer that hires us, and we make sure the audience has a great time.

Our song list contains a balance of current pop/country and well as pop/rock hits from the 70's forward. We strive to match the original vocal and instrumental arrangements of the songs we perform, and deliver a fluent show from start to finish.

We have played over 250 engagements during its existence, including numerous wedding receptions, class reunions, large-scale corporate events, and restaurants and bars throughout the Greater Cincinnati and Dayton areas, including:
